To Whom It May Concern:

As we all run our business to be successful, we must lean on the shoulders of those who can help. Your firm has made the recruitment part of my job so much easier. With one simple call made, ads are placed PROPERLY and the phones start to ring. Also, the ads are actually less expensive, which is a huge plus. In the nearly five years with working with your company we have seen our response go up and our costs go down. I would highly recommend The Roman Group over working with the papers direct.

Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,
Joseph Mazur
